

The image shows three identical mobile phone templates arranged horizontally, separated by vertical dashed lines. Each phone has a dark blue outline and a white screen. At the top of each screen is a hamburger menu icon (three horizontal lines) and a rounded rectangular search bar. The main content area of each screen contains three sections, each with a title and several horizontal lines for text entry:

- Section 1: Title "Я дізна ____" followed by two horizontal lines.
- Section 2: Title "Мене зацікавило" followed by three horizontal lines.
- Section 3: Title "Хочу дізнатися" followed by four horizontal lines.

At the bottom of each phone screen, there are three small circles, with the leftmost one filled with a dark blue dot, representing a page indicator.
