

A staircase diagram with five steps. Each step is represented by a rectangular box with an orange border. The boxes are arranged in a descending staircase pattern from top right to bottom left. The boxes are empty, intended for students to write their answers or reflections.